5 As regards Sarzaffardar Chitambara Row Moray, the Military Secretary in his letter No. 480 dated 7th July 1887 recommends that in consideration of his past misconduct he may be reduced to the rank of Jamadar and retained as a Supernumerary on the strength of the 1st Regiment. His proposal is sanctioned. If however Chitambara Row Moray elects to retire he may be allowed the benefit of the special Pension Rules above referred to and retired accordingly.

6. As regards Repaldar Guzzafer Beg of the 1st Regiment, who is also proposed to be retired, the Military Secretary states that his service extends to 37 years, of which 24 years 4 m. 0 d. were shaped in the British Service, and the remainder 12 y. 8 m. 0 d. under the Mysore Government, and that the period of British Service added to that of Mysore entitles him to the enhanced pension of Rupees 50 per mensem.

Letter No. 740/1 dated 28-4-74 from the Offg Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of Mysore to the Secretary to the Government, Military Department, Madras

Proceedings of the Government of Madras, Military Department No. 2008/375 of 25-6-74 —

— Do — Do — No. 2414/490 dated 29-7-74 —

From the marginally noted correspondence between the late Chief Commissioner of Mysore and the Government of Madras, it would who was then Havildar Major in the 4th Regiment of the Madras Cavalry were transferred to the Mysore Government to fill the post of Repaldar which was then vacant in the 2d Regiment of the Mysore Horse, and that up to the date of his transfer to Mysore Service his British Military service was only 18 years. With reference to the question raised by the late Chief Commissioner as to the course that should be taken to secure to the Havildar Major the benefit of his past service for pension, the Madras Government decided that he would be entitled to a Pension of Rupees 7 per month for his 18 years' service under the British Government. His pension according to the special rate would amount to Rs 44-4-0, out of which, the 7 Rs British Pension being deducted, the amount of Mysore Pension to be sanctioned would be Rupees 37-4-0 only, and not Rs 50 as now recommended. The Military Secretary is therefore requested to go through the papers of Repaldar Gurzaffer Beg again and to submit further report in the matter.

Y. M. D

Service under British Govt up to July 1875 as above	18-0-0
Service under Mysore Govt	12-8-0
Total Service	30-8-0

7. The Roll includes also the names of the marginally noted 4 Officers who were already retired. Of these, Salaroo-deen Bintoori has been granted the higher rate of Pension viz Rs 10/- per mensem in this Office Proceedings No 590-1 dated 15th September 1886.

1. Salardeen Bintoory Regimentdar of the late 2d Regiment.
2. Andi Narainsamy Nair Repaldar of the late 1st Regiment.
3. Bajee Row Mahary Daffdar of the 3d Regiment.
4. Venkata Row, Salagur Daffadar of the 1st Regiment.

8. Daffadar Venkat Row Salagur was retired on the ordinary pension of Rs 6 per mensem on medical certificate of unfitness of further service and is therefore not entitled to the special rate of pension granted to those discharged owing to reduction of Establishment.

The other remaining Officers whose cases require

Naidu and Daffadar Bajee Row Atapay - Repalda
Andi Narrainsamy Naidu who had put in ser
-vice extending over 37 years was on 10th September 1885 ordered to be regarded as thrown out of em
-ploy by the recent reduction in the Silladar Force so as to give him a higher pension in accordance with Proceedings No. 3308/52 dated 22nd August 188
He was accordingly given a grace of 3 years ad -ditional service and granted a Pension of Rs 46 under ordinary Rules - By the orders of 15 July 188 the favorable rates of Pension in accordance with Chief Commissioner's Proceedings No. 2932/52 dated 2nd September 1873 were ordered to be ap -plied to those reduced in 1885. Likewise Daf
-fadar Bajee Row Atapay has been granted a Pension of Rs 6 per mensem on the ordinary scale for the 27 years and 10 months' service rendered by him. It is under such circumstances only equitable to regard both Repaldar Andi Nar
-rainasamy Naidu and Daffadar Bajee Row Atapay as entitled to special Pensions according to the rates specified in Chief Commissioner's Pro -ceedings No. 2932/52 dated 2nd September 1873, subject however to such reduction as may be considered proper with reference to their unsa
-tisfactory conduct while in Government Service.
The difference between an ordinary Pension and a Special Pension is very considerable and it would be a hardship to deprive them of the benefit of the special pension rates as a punishment for

for the unsatisfactory conduct of which they have been guilty. The Government accordingly decide to make a deduction of Rs 5 in the case of the Resal-dar and Rs 2-5-4 in the case of the Daffadar, thus making their reduced special Pensions Rs 45/- and Rs 8/- respectively per mensem with effect from the date of their retirement.

10. The names of the officers and men of the marginally noted ranks who are also pro-posed to be retired have not been included in the Roll, as they have not completed their service for Pension. The Military Secretary's pro-posal to retain them as Supernumeraries till such time as they can be provided for by pro-motion or transfer to the other ranks as vacan-cies occur is sanctioned.

No. 873

Military Secretary's Office
Bangalore 22d August 1891

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore

Sir,

I have the honor to report for the information of the Dewan that with the few exceptions noted below the whole of the Supernumerary Commissioned and Non-Commissioned Officers referred to in Proceedings No. 5648-9/90 of the 16th December 1887 last have been retired on the dates noted in the margin.

21st January 1888
15th & 31st March 1889.

2. The exceptions alluded to are:-

(1) Rafaldar Gazfer Beg.

(2) Sirzuffardar Chitaldrug Row Moray.

Rafaldar Gazfer Beg is the officer referred to in para 6 of the Proceedings quoted above and in whose case a further report has been called for with reference to the pension he has been recommended for.

I have read the whole of the papers connected with his transfer to the Mysore Horse from Her Majesty's 4th Regiment Light Cavalry and find the following remarks made by the Secretary to the late Chief Commissioner in letter No. 470/4 of the 28th April 1884 to the address of the Secretary to the Government - Military Department - Madras when applying for the permanent transfer of the services of this officer to the Mysore State.

"He bears a high character and is an excellent instructor and Colonel Meade thinks it would therefore be of great service to retain him permanently in the service of the Mysore Government."

4. Rafadar Gazfer Beg has maintained the high character spoken of in the above communication and has on all occasions given entire satisfaction in the discharge of his duties.

5. There is no doubt that had he elected to revert to the 4th Madras Light Cavalry in preference to accepting the rank of Resaldar of Mysore Horse he would have risen to the rank of Subedar Major and retired on a pension of Rs. 80/= per mensem for his 32 years Service or probably more.

6. It will thus be seen that by offering his services to the Mysore State he has lost both in pay and pension.

7. I would therefore recommend that as a Special case he should be permitted to retire on a Special pension of Rs. 43/= per mensem for his 17 years Service in the Mysore Horse and that the Madras Government be addressed on the Subject of the pension of Rs. 7/= passed to him in the Proceedings of the Madras Government, Military Department No. 489 dated 29 July 1874, which will make the 50 Rs. he has been recommended for.

kindly look at the enclosed letter 873 of August 91 - The Hisaldar has to retire as he has over 40 years service and the Dewan told me to retire him - The only point is the amount of pension to which he is entitled.

In 1886 he was recommended for Rs 50 by Col Hay, and before sanctioning it, further information was called for – which the file herewith sent will give you. He is close on 44 years service of which 20 has been in Mysore so there would be no difficulty in his getting the pension, if you would sanction it.

Excuse trouble, but I have to retire him and if I don't get the question of pension settled before he is retired, it will add to our difficulty hereafter

Yours very sincerely

SIR K. SASHADRI IYER, K.C.S.I.,

DEWAN, MYSORE GOVERNMENT.

MOST HONORED SIR,

With due respect and profound submission I humbly beg to submit the few following lines for your Honour's kind consideration :—

That I was a Regimental Havildar-Major of the 4th Madras Light Cavalry and was transferred to the Mysore Government as a Drill Instructor under the orders of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief of Madras, where within one year I trained the 3rd Regiment, Mysore Horse, which passed in Camp Exercise and was characterised by Lord Napier as well trained. Then Colonel R. C. Stewart, Military Secretary of Mysore, got me permanently transferred from Madras to his forces and appointed me a Ressaldar and Drill Superintendent. Then Major Morant came as an Adjutant with whom I trained several more cavalries, also the late Kemp Raj Urs and the present Nunjund Raj Urs.

Moreover I beg to inform your Honour that Colonel R. C. Stewart sent me to the Delhi Imperial assemblage with Colonel Linton and there I rendered my service in entire satisfaction and learned Tent-pegging, and was then sent to the late Maharaja's Body Guard Ressalla to train them, which I did in a very short time, and also managed all the business of the late Maharaja's marriage under the orders of the Military Secretary. Then I was sent to Kungal Farm to cut short the heavy expenses there which I effected after taking a good deal of pains and showed a monthly gain of Rs. 2,000 to the Government which your Honour may remember, having then visited the Farm and examined the accounts, &c.

My predecessors who were in charge of the Farm were given good promotions and high appointments. And the other officers also who were sent for from the British Government to the Mysore Government were given higher pay and rich rewards. But I, an excellent officer in the British Government well known to all the Military Officers as well as the Bengal Government, had to be content, to my great misfortune, with a Ressaldarship till my retirement. Had I continued in the British service, I would have been made a Subadar-Major, Sirdar Bahadur, Aid-de-Camp, and would have retired on a monthly pension of Rs. 310, besides a Jaghire, &c.

This statement of mine may very well seem to be imaginary, but I enclose copies of Testimonials which will strongly bear it out to be true. I may be permitted to add that in 1886 when the 2nd Regiment, Mysore Horse, was disbanded and higher pensions were given to those who retired, I was not allowed to go to pension on account of my valuable services, and hence I was obliged to continue in service for the good of the State; but when I retired I had to retire as a common insignificant man on the usual pension, the Government having then forgotten all my capabilities and special merits which were taken into consideration to retain me in service for the benefit of the State. Had I retired then it would have been most advantageous to me in view of my then existing circumstances. I may be permitted to state the circumstance which often put me to blush for having served the Mysore Government and which I often try to avoid. Persons who served with me in the British Regiments and are now residing at Madras are in receipt of higher pension. Whenever they see me they taunt at me saying 'what have you gained having served the Rajah; you have lost what we have gained.' To get rid of such painful remarks I avoid my military friends so much so that I prefer incurring the trouble and expenses of going to Kungal, a taluk in Mysore Province, to draw my pension once in every four months instead of having it transferred to Madras.

I beg to add that I am a man of large family; I have to educate my children. My eldest son, about 25 years old, has studied up to the standard of the Matriculation class and knows Persian, Hindustani and Canarese. My other boys are still very young and are receiving preliminary education. I have to marry my daughters. In view of these circumstances, I beg to request your Honour will be pleased to give a favourable consideration to my case. First, I request your Honour to entertain my eldest son in some civil employ. Secondly, I beg to invite your Honour's attention to the correspondence between the British Government and the Mysore Government relative to my transfer from the former to the latter which will show your Honour to what consideration I am entitled to at the hands of your Honour's Government on account of my capabilities and meritorious services, and to request your Honour either to give me some reward or to increase my pension. Lastly, I will be obliged if your Honour will be pleased to give me a copy of the correspondence referred to about my transfer so that I may print it with my testimonials and retain it in memory of my life.

I beg to remain,
Most Honored Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

COPIES OF TESTIMONIALS.

I have known Regimental Havildar-Major Gazefer Beg for upwards of 20 years when Adjutant of the Regiment. I made him "Boy Havildar-Major." I have a high opinion of him.

On one occasion during the Mutiny in Bengal Gazefer Beg saved the life of Captain Douglas by shooting a sepoy with whom Captain Douglas had engaged at a disadvantage. Captain Douglas had a very high opinion of Gazefer Beg and obtained his promotion for good conduct in the field in 1858.

But for the reductions in the cavalry, Gazefer Beg would probably have long since been promoted to a commissioned officer; a rank which, I hope, he may soon attain.

BANGALORE,
19*th April* 1873.

(Signed) C. MELVILLE LAWFORD, MAJOR,
Bt. Lt.-Col., 4th Madras Cavalry.

I have known Havildar Gazefer Beg now for 18 years since the commencement of his service, and of late years he has been in the Squadron under my command.

He is a good soldier and a thoroughly respectable, trustworthy man.

He was promoted in the first instance from the ranks for gallant behaviour in action at Koilsa on the East Frontier of Oude. He is a good Drill Instructor and knows his work well, and I hope he will do well with the Mysore Silladars he is going to join.

(Signed) C. STEWART, MAJOR,
4th Madras Cavalry.

October 26th, 1872.

SECUNDERABAD, DECCAN,
24*th February* 1872.

I have reason to believe that the bearer, Havildar Gazefer Beg, behaved uncommonly well on service during the Mutiny in Bengal, and his first promotion was obtained in consequence of conspicuous gallantry.

I have known him for nearly 14 years and he has always borne an unexceptionable character.

(Signed) JOHNSON C. GALLOWAY, CAPTAIN,
4th Light Cavalry.

The bearer of this, Havildar Gazefer Beg, of the 4th Light Cavalry, is a most manly, honest, straightforward fellow. In a service and residence in India of 33 years, I have never met his equal. He is faithful and brave. He saved the life of Captain Douglas, a most gallant officer, at Koilsa. He was with this same officer on another occasion when the enemy had appeared, but the Squadron or men, from badness of ground, were not up, the Captain's query—what, nobody here? And Gazefer Beg's answer (whilst the bullets were whizzing fast about their ears) My hazerhoonsaib, are well known in the Regiment. I have also heard that with his own hands he captured three rebels armed to the teeth and brought them in. He is moreover thoroughly acquainted with Drill (Mounted and Foot) and discipline and interior economy of a Cavalry Corps. He is of respectable parentage. His noble old father I know well; he fought at the battle of Nagpore, and is still living. In short, I know of no native likely to fill a responsible and trusty post so well as Gazefer Beg.

I hope soon to hear of his being raised to a position more suited to his charac and qualifications.

(Signed) THO. DAVIS,
Pensioned Riding Master,
4th Light Caval

3rd November 1872.

Ressaldar Gazefer Beg, 2nd Regiment, Silladar Horse, was originally trar ferred from 4th Cavalry as Drill Instructor to the Silladar Horse.

He has been of great assistance to me and has taken great trouble teach the Silladars their Drill.

He is intelligent, painstaking and an excellent Drill.

In consequence of his excellent conduct, I promoted him to Ressaldar.

(Signed) R. C. STEWART, COLONEL,
Military Assistant.

April 1st, 1881.

I have known Havildar Gazefer Beg of the 4th Light Cavalry for the last 1 years and have much pleasure in stating that I think that he is a good soldier, ver willing and honest. I think that he is a good Drill and thoroughly to be relied upor

Acting Adjutant, 4th M.L.C.

BOWENPILEY,
27th October 1872.

I have known the bearer, Havildar Gazefer Beg, of the 4th Regiment Ligh Cavalry, for about two years and four months. I commanded the Squadron t which he belongs for 14 months and I always found him to be an active, energetic and good non-commissioned officer. I believe him to be a trustworthy and a respectable man.

Madras Light Cavalry.

SECUNDERABAD,
October 27th, 1872.

The bearer, Havildar Gazefer Beg, 4th M.L.C., was for about two years in my Squadron as Naigue during which time I found him steady, active and clean man. I believe him to be trustworthy and a respectable man.

Persons who served with me in the British Regiments and are now residing at Madras are in receipt of higher pension. Whenever they see me they taunt at me saying 'what have you gained having served the Rajah; you have lost what we have gained.' To get rid of such painful remarks I avoid my military friends so much so that I prefer incurring the trouble and expenses of going to Kungal, a taluk in Mysore Province, to draw my pension once in every four months instead of having it transferred to Madras.

I beg to add that I am a man of large family; I have to educate my children. My eldest son, about 25 years old, has studied up to the standard of the Matriculation class and knows Persian, Hindustani and Canarese. My other boys are still very young and are receiving preliminary education. I have to marry my daughters. In view of these circumstances, I beg to request your Honour will be pleased to give a favourable consideration to my case. First, I request your Honour to entertain my eldest son in some civil employ. Secondly, I beg to invite your Honour's attention to the correspondence between the British Government and the Mysore Government relative to my transfer from the former to the latter which will show your Honour to what consideration I am entitled to at the hands of your Honour's Government on account of my capabilities and meritorious services, and to request your Honour either to give me some reward or to increase my pension. Lastly, I will be obliged if your Honour will be pleased to give me a copy of the correspondence referred to about my transfer so that I may print it with my testimonials and retain it in memory of my life.

COPIES OF TESTIMONIALS

I have known Regimental Havildar-Major Gazefer Beg for upwards of 20 years when Adjutant of the Regiment. I made him "Boy Havildar-Major." I have a high opinion of him.

On one occasion during the Mutiny in Bengal Gazefer Beg saved the life of Captain Douglas by shooting a sepoy with whom Captain Douglas had engaged at a disadvantage. Captain Douglas had a very high opinion of Gazefer Beg and obtained his promotion for good conduct in the field in 1858.

But for the reductions in the cavalry, Gazefer Beg would probably have long since been promoted to a commissioned officer; a rank which, I hope, he may soon attain.

He was with this same officer on another occasion when the enemy had appeared, but the Squadron or men, from badness of ground, were not up, the Captain's query—what, nobody here? And Gazefer Beg's answer (whilst the bullets were whizzing fast about their ears) My hazerhoonsaib, are well known in the Regiment. I have also heard that with his own hands he captured three rebels armed to the teeth and brought them in. He is moreover thoroughly acquainted with Drill (Mounted and Foot) and discipline and interior economy of a Cavalry Corps. He is of respectable parentage. His noble old father I know well; he fought at the battle of Nagpore, and is still living. In short, I know of no native likely to fill a responsible and trusty post so well as Gazefer Beg.

SIR K. SASHADRI IYER, K.C.S.I.,

DEWAN, MYSORE GOVERNMENT.

MOST HONORED SIR,

With due respect and profound submission I humbly beg to submit the few following lines for your Honour's kind consideration :—

That I was a Regimental Havildar-Major of the 4th Madras Light Cavalry and was transferred to the Mysore Government as a Drill Instructor under the orders of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief of Madras, where within one year I trained the 3rd Regiment, Mysore Horse, which passed in Camp Exercise and was characterised by Lord Napier as well trained. Then Colonel R. C. Stewart, Military Secretary of Mysore, got me permanently transferred from Madras to his forces and appointed me a Ressaldar and Drill Superintendent. Then Major Morant came as an Adjutant with whom I trained several more cavalries, also the late Kemp Raj Urs and the present Nunjund Raj Urs.

Moreover I beg to inform your Honour that Colonel R. C. Stewart sent me to the Delhi Imperial assemblage with Colonel Linton and there I rendered my service in entire satisfaction and learned Tent-pegging, and was then sent to the late Maharaja's Body Guard Ressalla to train them, which I did in a very short time, and also managed all the business of the late Maharaja's marriage under the orders of the Military Secretary. Then I was sent to Kungal Farm to cut short the heavy expenses there which I effected after taking a good deal of pains and showed a monthly gain of Rs. 2,000 to the Government which your Honour may remember, having then visited the Farm and examined the accounts, &c.

My predecessors who were in charge of the Farm were given good promotions and high appointments. And the other officers also who were sent for from the British Government to the Mysore Government were given higher pay and rich rewards. But I, an excellent officer in the British Government well known to all the Military Officers as well as the Bengal Government, had to be content, to my great misfortune, with a Ressaldarship till my retirement. Had I continued in the British service, I would have been made a Subadar-Major, Sirdar Bahadur, Aid-de-Camp, and would have retired on a monthly pension of Rs. 310, besides a Jaghire, &c.

This statement of mine may very well seem to be imaginary, but I enclose copies of Testimonials which will strongly bear it out to be true. I may be permitted to add that in 1886 when the 2nd Regiment, Mysore Horse, was disbanded and higher pensions were given to those who retired, I was not allowed to go to pension on account of my valuable services, and hence I was obliged to continue in service for the good of the State; but when I retired I had to retire as a common insignincant man on the usual pension, the Government having then forgotten all my capabilities and special merits which were taken into consideration to retain me in service for the benefit of the State. Had I retired then it would have been most advantageous to me in view of my then existing circumstances. I may be permitted to state the circumstance which often put me to blush for having served the Mysore Government and which I often try to avoid. Persons who served with me in the British Regiments and are now residing at Madras are in receipt of higher pension. Whenever they see me they taunt at me saying 'what have you gained having served the Rajah; you have lost what we have gained.' To get rid of such painful remarks I avoid my military friends so much so that I prefer incurring the trouble and expenses of going to Kungal, a taluk in Mysore Province, to draw my pension once in every four months instead of having it transferred to Madras.

I beg to add that I am a man of large family; I have to educate my children. My eldest son, about 25 years old, has studied up to the standard of the Matriculation class and knows Persian, Hindustani and Canarese. My other boys are still very young and are receiving preliminary education. I have to marry my daughters. In view of these circumstances, I beg to request your Honour will be pleased to give a favourable consideration to my case. First, I request your Honour to entertain my eldest son in some civil employ. Lastly, I will be obliged if your Honour will be pleased to give me a copy of the correspondence referred to about my transfer so that I may print it with my testimonials and retain it in memory of my life.
